FOREWORD

The "Cloisterette" staff of 1957 has chosen for its theme, a play. The main characters of the play are portrayed by the seniors, and the background of our high school days supplies our setting.

DEDICATION

The class of 1957 dedicates this, our "Cloisterette," in honor of our parents, who were essential in guiding our twelve years of school, and finally in helping us achieve our graduation.

Bixler, Harry W. Mason, Dr. Robert L. Jones, David Musselman. Missing—Christ Bollinger, John L. Hamaker.

SCHOOL BOARD — PRODUCERS

This year marked the beginning of the Ephrata Union School Board. The Board consists of twenty-two members who represent Akron, Ephrata Township, Clay Township, and Ephrata Borough School Districts.

Among other things, the Board authorized additions to the elementary and high school faculty, and a $50,000 addition to the high school. The Board also hired an architect to plan for the new Ephrata High School.

Plans for the future include the completion of the new high school, a cafeteria for the present high school, and the conversion of the present high school into a twenty room elementary school.

THE "CLOISTERETTE" STAFF

In October the "Cloisterette" Staff, under the capable direction of Pat Sweigart, editor-in-chief, and her associate editors, Joanna Shreiner and Ann Homsher, was formed.

At the first staff meeting, a new and completely different theme was chosen; that of a play.

The staff was composed of five separate units, which worked conscientiously to produce a successful yearbook.

The literary staff, under the direction of Gail Bolster, composed the senior write-ups, sports, activity and class write-ups, and class features. After the material was checked by the literary editor, and revisions were made, the typists transcribed the work into neat copies.

The business staff, headed by Larry Loose, worked hard to help finance the yearbook. They spent much time soliciting donations from the businessmen, and also handling the sales of the yearbook.

Sharon Reddig and Marie Deibler, with the aid of Mrs. Betty Fridinger, designed and sketched each sectional divider and additional art work.

The staff photographers, Bill Rhorbach and Raymond Stauffer, were seen taking action shots at sports events and other school activities.

The editors, supported by the entire staff, and advised by Miss Phyllis Goodman, did their best, and hope to have succeeded in bringing you an outstanding yearbook.

STUDENT COUNCIL — TECHNICIANS

The Student Council, under the supervision of Mr. Allen H. Hammon, met each week during homeroom period. Their activities consisted of conducting the Red Cross Drive, the Tuberculosis Campaign, and taking charge of the opening exercises in chapel. They were also kept busy with many suggestions received from the various conventions.

Larry Loose, Muriel Myer, Pat Sweigart, and Ken Sensenig were chosen as representatives to the county convention at Hempfield High School.

Those attending the safety convention at Millersville were Ann Homsher, Lee Wilhelm, Barbara Foltz, Barry Burkholder, Marlene Royer, and Andy Miller.

Two new projects taken on this year were the naming of a Good Citizen of the Month and the crowning of a Sir Valentine. The good citizens, carefully watched during school by the members of the Student Council, were given gold Good Citizen pins in assembly programs. Sir Valentine was crowned in assembly and also at the school dance, February 22. All pennies used in the voting were sent to the Heart Haven.

The officers for this year's council were Larry Loose, president; Pat Sweigart, corresponding secretary; Ann Homsher, recording secretary; Lee Wilhelm, treasurer; and Jesse Wolf, sergeant-at-arms.

Seniors in this group are Muriel Myer, Ann Homsher, Pat Sweigart, Carl Matin, Larry Loose, Ken Sensenig, and Lee Wilhelm.

CLASS HISTORY—PROLOGUE

In September, 1953, we, the class of 1957, eagerly entered Frata High, looking forward to meeting the many new students who would share our last four years of school. The main event of the year was our Freshman Party which was thoroughly enjoyed by all. Muriel Myer and Larry Loose represented us on the Student Council.

Returning as sophomores, we held our first election of officers. Our president was Claude Lynch; vice-president, Tom Braman; secretary, Paula Flory; and treasurer, Myron Fasnacht. Our Student Council representatives were again Muriel Myer and Larry Loose.

As juniors we elected our class officers as follows: president, Larry Loose; vice-president, Claude Lynch; secretary, Paula Flory; and treasurer, Bob McCoy. Sally Lied, Sara Risser, Carl Martin, and Lee Wilhelm were the Student Council representatives. Chosen as our class colors were baby blue and white. As hosts to the seniors at the prom on May 4, we chose the theme, "Rhapsody In Blue."

In the fall of 1956 we entered E. H. S. for the final step of our high school career. We knew the time would quickly fly by, and we would soon go our separate ways. Larry Loose was again chosen our president, Darryl Sensenig, vice-president; Paula Flory, secretary; and Bill Rohrbach, treasurer. As repesentatives to the Student Council we selected Ann Homsher, Muriel Myer, Pat Sweigart, Carl Martin, Ken Sensenig, and Lee Wilhelm. For the first time in history, Ephrata High had an undefeated football team, and as seniors we were proud to have nine of our fellows in the starting line-up. On May 3, we were entertained by the juniors at the prom. With Baccalaureate, Class Day, and Commencement exercises over, we set out to fulfill our dreams and ambitions, never forgetting the essential part of our growing-up spent in Ephrata High School.

CLASS PROPHECY — EPILOGUE

As we, the class of 1957, see the doors of our school days close behind us, we look hesitantly toward the responsibilities of our future lives. What shall we do with our lives? Will we use the knowledge we have gained in the past twelve years to our greatest advantage?

We, independently launching our careers, will no longer have our teachers and parents to counsel us. Instead we must choose new friends, follow new paths, and make our own decisions. Some of us will enter into the business world as salesmen or apprentices to large concerns. Perhaps a few of the more ambitious of these will later run their own businesses, or advance to become executives in their chosen careers. Many girls will enter the secretarial field, choosing from a limitless variety of jobs. Those who continue their education, either in college or a university, will have to wait for several years before starting on their own. From our class this group will probably include many teachers, homemakers, lawyers, engineers, musicians, artists, and some who will make social service their career. In the field of medicine, our class will certainly produce many skilled doctors, nurses, scientists, dentists, technologists, and medical secretaries. Of course, there will be many entering the armed forces, protecting the future for all of us.

Together we have striven toward a common goal, Graduation Day, but now we shall all seek our individual goals, with the memories of our high school days, both happy and sad, firmly implanted in our minds.

THE LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF THE ACTORS

We, the much esteemed and honorable class cf nineteen hundred and fifty-seven, in sound possession of our minds and bodies, with most of our earthly life before us, do hereby proclaim, establish, and ordain this, our Last Will and Testament. We do solemnly swear that every provision shall be carried out to the fullest extent of the executors' power.

1. Marie Deibler's artistic ability to Barry Crowther.
2. Sara Risser's pep to Joanne Kreider.
3. The lasting friendship of Paula Flory and Marlene McCloud to Jean Ober and Audrey Haldeman.
4. Gail Bolster's literary ability to Rosemarie Pogwist.
5. Carl Gockley's speeches to Douglas Enck.
6. Susan Heberlig's long tresses to Joyce Sahm.
7. Gloria Brubaker's 4-H awards to all future 4-H'ers.
8. Nancy Royer's efficiency to Vivian Shirk.
9. Jean Witmer's melodious alto voice to Judy Murray.
10. Darryl Sensenig's "way with the girls" to Sid Mentzer.
11. Larry Eshelman's unique laugh to Glenn Weist.
12. Ruth Ann Deater's smile to Ellen Minnich.
13. Muriel Myer's versatility to Barbara Foltz.
14. Jeanne Buffenmyer's amiability to Sandy Weist.
15. Ray Stauffer's wild stories to Nelson Glatfelter.
16. Myron Fasnacht's appetite to David Hunt.
17. Marilyn Wolf's bus route to Shirley Weaver.
18. Fred Zinn's blush to Donald Gamber.
19. Dale Wenger's marksmanship to Glenn Eckhart.
20. Elaine Bollinger's conscientiousness to Darle Bomberger.
21. Jim Harter's place in an all-girl section to some future lucky boy.
22. To Mr. Brubaker, a replacement for Larry Bingeman in chemistry class.
23. To Mr. Roland, an undisturbed evening the night trig assignments are due.
24. To Mr. Hammon, a guard for the milk machine and a specialist for the oil burners.
25. Our undefeated season to next year's football team.
26. To the juniors, an abundant supply of oil for burning the midnight lamp.
27. To the sophomores, more hours in the day to fulfill a busy junior year.
28. To the freshmen, a long-awaited pass to the Senior High Dances.
29. To the eighth grade, a successful Freshman Party.
30. To the seventh grade, a deeper sense of responsibility for their future years.

To this document we do hereby firmly affix our seal, in the year of our Lord, nine hundred and fifty-seven.

JUNIOR-SENIOR PROM

The annual Junior-Senior Prom was presented by the class of 1957 on Friday night, May 4, 1956, in the gymnasium. The theme, "Rhapsody in Blue," was depicted by the figures of a man and woman in evening clothes in the center of the gym. At both ends of the gym were patios with benches, tables, and flowers, all enclosed in low, white fences. A large mural, the skyline of a city, stretched across the back wall. In the four corners were large replicas of song sheets with all the titles containing the word "blue." A large crystal ball, hung from the center of the ceiling, cast specks of different colored light around the room. Music for the evening was furnished by Al Morrison's orchestra.

Refreshments consisted of fruit punch, potato chips, mints and several kinds of cookies. The refreshment tables were decorated with blue and white crepe paper tying in with the theme.

The prom committees worked hard under the supervision of their advisors, Miss Esther Weeter, Mrs. Betty Fridinger, Mrs. Winifred Lentz, and Mr. Lester Fleischman.

Hauck, M. Deibler.

SENIOR BAND

The Senior Band, under the baton of Mr. Robert Bieber, worked very hard this year marching at the football games and in various parades. The band gave a fine concert, February 19, which featured the famous trumpet soloist and conductor, Rafael Mendez.

There were eight representatives to County Band, four of whom were seniors. They included Gail Bolster, clarinet; Marty Burkholder, clarinet; Ann Homsher, Eb saxophone; and Alfred Zinn, bass drum.

We also had five representatives to District Band. They were Yvonne Fassnacht, cornet; Larry Loose, baritone; Gail Bolster and Marty Burkholder, clarinet; and Dale Weller, trumpet. Our one representative to State Band was Dale Weller.

JUNIOR BAND

This group is composed of Junior High School members. They have done a fine job in marching at home football games and in the Farm Show parade.

The band acts as a little sister to the Senior Band. It has its own majorettes, flag twirlers, and a good supply of musicians.

With this talented group of young musicians, we are sure Mr. Bieber will have a good band in the future, and can go a long way in creating more interest in music.

DANCE BAND

The Dance Band, made up of a select group of brass, woodwind, percussion, and string instruments, worked hard under the direction of Mr. Robert Bieber. Their "jazz" tunes and "cool blues" were greatly enjoyed by the students.

Seniors in the Dance Band are Eleanor Brossman, Ann Homsher, Larry Loose, Bill Rohrbach, Gail Bolster, and Yvonne Fassnacht.

Piano (l. to r.)—M. E. Deckard, L. Mitchell, D. Bomberger. First Row—A. Musser, J. Riffert, J. Wealand, B. Hammer, B. Peifer, J. Yoder, J. Oberholtzer, J. Hufford, E. Minnich, M. Wolf, M. Burkholder. Second Row—S. Myer, D. Nolt, J. Kreider, R. Lausch, P. Zwally, J. Groff, J. Weidman, D. Weller, B. Rohrbach, Y. Fassnacht, P. Eiseman, G. Bare, R. Blanck, R. McGeary, J. Kostecky. Third Row—G. Bolster, E. Brossman, M. Deibler, E. Kiehl, R. Pogwist.

ORCHESTRA

This group, under the direction of Mr. Robert Bieber, has done a fine job this year. Although small, the orchestra mastered many difficult numbers. Five of the musicians attended county orchestra. They were Arlene Musser, John Fuehrer, Gail Hacker, Alfred Zinn, and Julie Riffert, who also attended district orchestra.

Seniors in the orchestra were Gail Bolster, Eleanor Brossman, Marie Deibler, Bill Rohrbach, Yvonne Fassnacht, Marty Burkholder, and Marilyn Wolf.

SENIOR HIGH MIXED CHORUS

Aside from its usual activities, the Senior High Chorus this year presented the operetta, "Little Women," on April 13. This enjoyable feature was under the direction of Mrs. Mildred Leisey and Mr. Robert Metzler. Many seniors had leading roles, with the whole chorus participating in songs and dances.

Seniors in the Mixed Chorus were Larry Bickhart, Larry Bingeman, Elaine Bollinger, Gloria Brubaker, Lois Demmy, Ruth Ann Deater, Delores Gehr, Judy Gerhart, John Hiestand, Susan Heberlig, Betsey Ingham, Jane Lied, Larry Loose, Muriel Myer, Sara Risser, Wayne Roach, Darryl Sensenig, Kenneth Sensenig, Joanna Shreiner, Janet Sweigart, Patricia Sweigart, David Ursprung, Kathleen Witmyer, Jean Witmer, Sylvia Young, and Patricia Ziemer.

Our Senior High Chorus sent thirteen students to County Chorus. They were Barbara Foltz, Joanne Kreider, Larry Loose, Joyce Sahm, Kenneth Sensenig, Darryl Sensenig, Carol Sheaffer, Harriet Showalter, Joanna Shreiner, Patricia Sweigart, Jean Ann Witmer, Bonita Witmer, and Kathleen Witmyer. Carol Sheaffer and Joanne Kreider represented E. H. S. at District Chorus.

JUNIOR HIGH MIXED CHORUS

This group, composed of seventh, eighth, and ninth grade students, presented excellent selections, under the direction of Mrs. Mildred Leisey, for holiday programs, assembly programs, and special occasions.

With all its energy and talents, this group proved itself a great asset to the music department of Ephrata High.

THE "MOUNTAINEER" STAFF

This year completed another successful season for the "Mountaineer." The seven issues of the paper furnished the current news events in and around E. H. S. A record high of 560 subscribed to the paper this year. The "Mountaineer" staff was guided by its advisors Miss Charlotte Keller and Mr. Robert Metzler.

Pictured at the left are seated, left to right—Pat Sweigart, news editor; Gail Bolster, editor-in-chief, and standing her associate editors, Joanne Kreider and Ann Homsher. These people, who had the responsibility of making assignments, correcting the news stories, and setting up the paper, worked hard to make the "Mountaineer" a success.

Seniors on the staff included Sara Risser, exchange editor; Sally Lied, girls sports editor; Marie Deibler, artist; Ray Stauffer, photographer; Elaine Bollinger, Jeanne Buffenmyer, Arlene Butzer, and Carrie Graybill, special typists; Kathleen Witmyer, feature editor; Muriel Myer, Nancy Royer, and Susan Heberlig, news board.

INQIRING REPORTER

Instead of asking you what you'd do if you were given something you never heard of this month we decided to ask the football and basketball players something we all are probably somewhat curious about. The question asked of several players was, "Does cheering at a football or basketball game inspire you to play a better game?" In other words, if there wasn't a crowd of fans there yelling and cheering them on, would they play as well as if there were a crowd yelling for them.

Dave Foltz — "If you know the students are behind you, you want to win for them."

Jim Stoner — "Yes. It gives you confidence when y[illegible]ow the student body wants [illegible]."

John Kostecky [illegible]y should be loud[illegible] elastic abou[illegible]

Russell [illegible] gives yo[illegible] try to [illegible]

Da[illegible] somet[illegible] can he[illegible]

Jerry [illegible] inspires [illegible]

Dale Martin [illegible] helps the team [illegible] boys on the benc[illegible] watch."

Phillip Rhoads [illegible] still play a good [illegible] without cheering."

Ronald Mellinger — [illegible]ing helps the team along, but with team spirit we can win the games."

Leslie Doremus — "If we are at home we can hear the cheering and it helps a little."

Barry Burkholder — "It proves that the students are in back of you, even if it might not help you!!" (What does that mean, Burk?)

Sid Mentzer — "Yes, it gives you the feeling that the school is behind you, and it makes you fight to keep what you have and what you want to get and what you want to keep. In plain words, it gives you school spirit."

Most of the boys seem to think cheering helps them win a game. They all emphasize school spirit, so how about everyone coming to the games and supplying that much need school spirit?

FACULTY ENJOYS VARIED CHRISTMAS

This month we shall take a peek at how our ever-busy teachers managed to use up their Christmas vacation.

Mrs. Shaub—"Entertained at an old-fashioned party and relaxed the rest of the time."

Mr. Lesher—"Helped take inventory in a store, counted needles and pins.

Mr. Graham—"Took life easy in Florida."

Mr. Metzler — "Stayed home, read, watched T. V. and visited my parents."

Mr. Roland—"Loafing and a little bit of painting."

Miss Mohler—"At home."

Mr. Derr—"Loafed most of the time."

Mrs. Fridinger—"Eating, sleeping, and party going."

Mr. Albright—"Was real lazy."

Miss Goodman—"Loafed most of the time and enjoyed it very much."

Mr. Bieber—"Worked on our train layout with Bruce Weaver and practiced my horn quite a bit."

Miss Hoover—"Visited friends in Maryland and entertained friends myself."

Mr. Hoover—"Didn't get much more done than play with the baby."

Mr. Weidman—"Vacationed in Florida."

Miss Loy—"Visited my family and brought my niece home with me."

COUNTY CHORUS CONTESTANTS GO TO LANCASTER

On January 28 the try-outs for County Chorus will be held in the Saint Paul's Reformed Church at Lancaster. Persons from every school in the county will be there

VARSITY FOOTBALL

Under the reign of Coach Galen Weidman, this year's football team completed a most successful season by capturing the Conference of the Roses Championship.

Led by co-captains Ken Sensenig and Darryl Sensenig, the "Mighty Mounts" for '57 were undefeated, and extended Frata's winning streak to seventeen in a row, the longest winning streak in Lancaster County's history.

Aside from winning the championship, the E. H. S. team placed seven players on the County All Star Team. They were Sid Mentzer, Darryl Sensenig, Lee Wilhelm, Dick Koch, Robert McCoy, Ken Sensenig, and Claude Lynch, who was the county's leading scorer, and was named the most outstanding player in Lancaster City and County. Dale Martin and Myron Fasnacht made the second team, with Larry Loose and Lance Steierwald receiving honorable mention.

Seniors on the team were Darryl Sensenig, Lee Wilhelm, Richard Koch, Myron Fasnacht, Lance Steierwald, Larry Loose, Robert McCoy, Kenneth Sensenig, Claude Lynch, and Dennis Hartranft. The Mounts' ten victories were the following:

VARSITY BASKETBALL

The '57 Varsity team, with Mr. Roger Care as their capable coach, recorded a commendable record as they displayed their prowess on the hardwood. Their followers were thrilled by the closeness of many of the games, as four of them were decided by one point.

The class of '57 wishes next year's team the best of luck.

Seniors on the '57 squad were Larry Loose, Darryl Sensenig, Lee Wilhelm, Myron Fassnacht, and Claude Lynch.

VARSITY CHEERLEADERS

By leading the cheers and keeping the student spirit alive, these girls encouraged our teams to fight, and many times to go on to victory. The varsity cheerleaders added zest to the old cheers, and composed several new ones. They were seen at all football games, many times heartily cheering in spite of mud, rain, and cold. They also cheered at all the basketball games, and received their varsity "E's" along with the basketball team. Sara Risser, Kate Kilkuskie, Muriel Myer, and Susie Gerhard were the senior cheerleaders.

GIRLS' INTRAMURAL SPORTS

Under the direction of Mrs. Hazel Shrom, several teams were organized in various girls' sports, including hockey, volleyball, and basketball. These teams, holding their games during the noon hours, completed a very active and competitive year.

The girls' intramural sports program started out on the wrong foot for the seniors this year, when the juniors beat them in hcckey. The games were very close, for each team put up a fight. The first game was tied 2-2, and the second game ended with a 2-1 score. Members of the winning team were Brenda Enck, Audrey Heil, Brenda Butler, Doris Smith, Audrey Haldeman, Joan Oberholtzer, Arlene Musser, Debbie MacFarland, Jeanne Pawling, Mae Fake, and Carole Ibach. The seniors included Kate Kilkuskie, Jerelyn Hauck, Janis Burkholder, Muriel Myer, Joan Myer, Sally Lied, Jane Lied, Betsey Ingham, Pat Mellinger, Marty Burkholder, Marilyn Wolf, Joan Althouse, Sharon Reddig, Paula Flory, Sara Risser, Ruth Hess, Marie Deibler, and Gloria Brubaker.

In volleyball the seniors finally triumphed. Each senior high class was divided into three teams. The victorious team under Sara Risser included Sally Lied, Kate Kilkuskie, Pat Sweigart, Joanna Shreiner, Ruth Hess, Janis Burkholder, Marie Deibler, Marty Burkholder, and Ann Homsher. Paula Flory's team won 0 and lost 2, while Muriel Myer's team won 1 and lost 1.

In basketball the seniors were divided into two teams. The veteran team captained by Sally Lied sought to recapture the title won by the juniors last year. Members of this team were Sara Risser, Kate Kilkuskie, Judy Gerhart, Janis Burkholder, Marilyn Wolf, Marty Burkholder and Sharon Reddig. The members of the other team captained by Ruth Hess included Gloria Brubaker, Joan Myer, Joan Althouse, Jean Witmer, Jane Wealand, Marie Diebler, Elizabeth Rudy, and Pat Sweigart.
